

	Tick one
	Very weak	Weak	Average	Good	Excellent
Authentication
Cardiac patient can register a new account.
Cardiac patient can login using email or phone number and password.
Cardiac patient can logout.
User
Cardiac patient can view personal information.
Cardiac patient can edit personal information.
Cardiac patient can update password.
Cardiac patient can update upload profile picture.
Cardiac patient can link their UMFit account to Huawei Health account.
Educational Resource
Cardiac patient can view educational blogs.
Quiz
Cardiac patient can view available quiz.
Cardiac patient can view current months quiz marks.
Cardiac patient can view quiz history list.
Cardiac patient can start and answer the quiz.
Cardiac patient can quit from ongoing quiz.
Cardiac patient can submit the answered quiz.
Cardiac patient can view answered quiz's marks and points after submitting quiz.
Point
Cardiac patient can view accumulated points.
Cardiac patient can view a list of point records.
Cardiac patient can get points by answering quiz or completing exercise.
Health Data
Cardiac patient can view their health data such as average heart rate, maximum heart rate, latest exercise duration, weekly exercise duration and steps count in the home page dashboard.

Cardiac patient can view their past health rate and exercise duration in a particular day, week or in a date range in a line graph visualisation
Notification
Cardiac patient can receive notification when the patient's heart rate exceeds the prescribed maximum heart rate.
Cardiac patient can receive notification when there is no health data fetch from Huawei wearable devices for two days.
Cardiac patient can receive notification when there is no prescribed exercise record fetched from Huawei wearable devices for two days.
Leaderboard
Cardiac patient can view group ranking.
Cardiac patient can view buddy ranking.
Exercise Progress Tracking
Cardiac patient can view weekly exercise progress based on prescription.
Cardiac patient can view past exercise records in a particular day, week or in a date range.
Cardiac patient can manually record exercise.
Cardiac patient can view current prescription details.
Cardiac patient can view a list of past prescription.
Cardiac patient can view past prescription details.
Buddy Recommendation
Cardiac patient can view joined group and its group members.
Cardiac patient can navigate to group members WhatsApp chatbox.
Cardiac patient can edit group info.
Cardiac patient can exit from group.
Cardiac patient can search for recommended buddy.
Cardiac patient can send group joining request to others.

Cardiac patient can view group joining request received from others.
Cardiac patient can accept group joining request from others.
Cardiac patient can reject group joining request from others.

	Tick one
	Strong Disagree	Disagree	Moderate	Agree	Strongly Agree
Overall, I am satisfied with how easy it is to use this mobile application.
It was simple to use this system.
It was easy to learn to use this system.
The interface of this system was pleasant and consistent.
The application workflow is straightforward.
It is easy to navigate to all functionalities in the mobile application.
The functionalities in mobile application are highly recognizable.
This mobile application could help me become more motivated in the cardiac rehabilitation process.
This mobile application could help me gain knowledge about healthy habits.
This mobile application could help reduce my social isolation during the cardiac rehabilitation process

Feedback/Improvement (if any):
